

San Juan-Caguas-Guaynabo, PR

- In 2007, the San Juan-Caguas-Guaynabo metropolitan area was the 16th largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $14.6 billion.
- The San Juan metropolitan area accounted for 81 percent of Puerto Rico's merchandise exports in 2007.
- Belgium was a leading export destination for San Juan's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were the Netherlands and Canada.
- Chemicals was the top San Juan export category in 2007, accounting for $12.3 billion, or 84 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were miscellaneous manufactured commodities ($335 million, 2 percent); and transportation equipment ($152 million, or 1 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information